

Mattress Log

Like a document

Kinda like the one I did in class with the weird pictures well anyway list the dates since you didn't write it all down

You should have

Maybe start writing it down

Uhhhhhh make sure to talk about the dates, and what's there, and what happened well

Let's just go backwards.

Today you washed the sheet
Today is like what? April 26th?

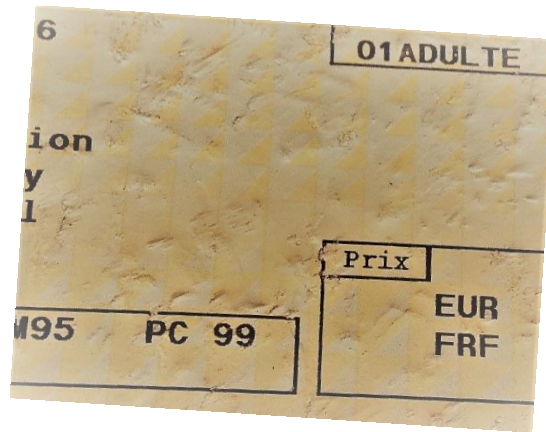

Idk 2017

You had to wash the sheet because it was getting dirty and the garbage truck ran into the mattress and got the side of the sheets dirty super dirty from the side of the garbage truck in the log the garbage truck leaving and passing it up maybe put in a poem that weird stalker poem from the fact that he followed you.

Did I just call the police on myself?

And then the spraypaint and the weirdness and put in that weird mytonomy Metonymy poem

the one where you're just like naming words and maybe put in some pictures maybe make it into a pdf... umm

uhhh

yeah.

Don't make it too complicated.

Just be the mattress log uhhhh
I just like the idea of the poem and putting in the idea the fact that I called the police on myself I mean the stalker bit

I mean cos it's real and now I have a stalker and the mattress
and the glass and then I moved the glass from the table and then it's on the mattress... and then all of this.

It all goes in there and uh

Yeah
Okay.

Why is this person in the street?
I will

Yoga?

high
I do not have time for this

Okay.

January 21-23?

Appearance of mattress

April 3rd

Looking through pic gallery on phone and notice mattress behind Bern.

Phone says taken 13 days ago

April 10th

I should drag this mattress out to the good side and see what happens.

March 11th

Old dirty mattresses have bedbugs. Do not touch.

February 9th

I'm going to have to touch the mattress.

February

Bohm

Synchronicity

Be more professional

I'm soooooo hungry

Tooth fairy?

April 10th

Levi Strauss

Giant monster tooth

Sometimes I'm not so nice

April 11th

I think I have a stalker wow.

Hey mom

I wanna tell you something.

You are the nicest person in the world.

March 24th

I never knew what it felt like to have a real live stalker. Like irl. It kinda sucks. I text Cheryl and tell her if I see him I'm going to eat his face off. Which is true... but what about sleeping?

That's the only thing... such a disadvantage when you sleep, like anybody can creep up on you fuck. What to do? What did the cowboys do? In the movies when they slept by the fire or under a tree or something they would pull their dusty cap down over their eyes. Guess they were hardcore. I get that. Being a cowboy and all- and you know- they say you're not supposed to acknowledge your new unshakeable friend you're supposed to just ignore and disengage but I say what about engaging just once to say I'm going to murder you. Doesn't that help? I think so. Then for the ignoring.

I can do that part. I'm pretty good at it, too. Also, going along with my life. I learned it from the French. Oh? Someone's trying to murder me? Hmm is there any chocolat in the middle of that croissant? I'll take that one please hmmm I'm singing a little ditty in my head and not even whistling in the dark. When this life is over a new life starts. Am I scared of you- no. Ha.

fitting

March 4th

You can imagine figures like Hegel

Marx

Freud

Heidegger

Maybe not Mead (...but why not, he could've)

Derrida

...Why'd he have to write it like that?

is he talking bout ghosts?

oh. Sounded like ghosts.

Why'd he have to say it like that?

January 16th

Pretty funny.

February 6th

milieu of that croissant

Quantum physics

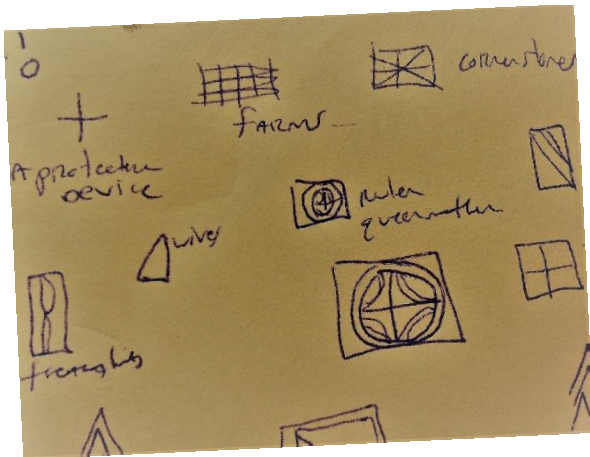

April 17th

I think I called the police on myself.

April 18th

Now that's funny. I mean, I finally called the police for the "anonymous prowler" in the neighborhood leaving pieces of glass similar to my glass on my site specific but then I thought about Zam and the spraypaint and the dark clothes and now I can't paint my mattress anymore.

April 7th

the ghost-like way freud continues to haunt us

March 15th

I mean, I may be paranoid. True, I enjoy the good mystery and even like creating some and reading my friends mystery story blogs... but what if stalker started a blog and I've been thinking it's my old friend but really its not messing with my head and that would be crazy like a movie. But I know I'm not crazy. confusing

April 11th

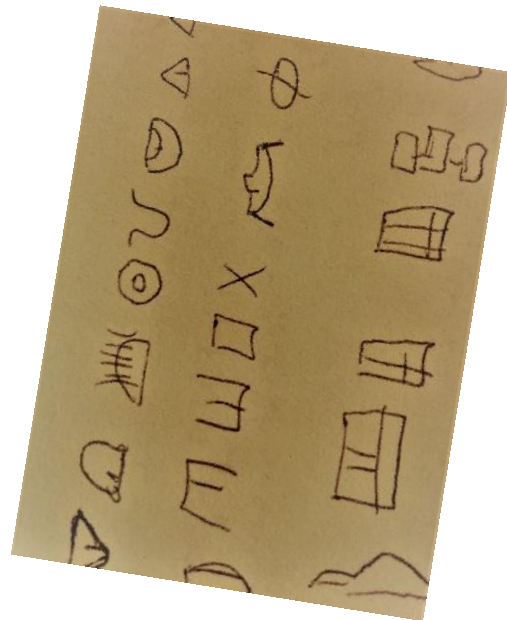

It's still there

April 3rd

I must be crazy. making. Can someone intercept your texts and make it seem like your texting people or other people are sending you ghost texts? Has that ever happened? How long really want to paint mattress but I think the neighbors would think I'm weird. I have to do it at night.

April 18th

February 15th

What can you do to a mattress?

That doesn't sound so academic

April 8th

Is it art? ...balloons on the mattress?

March 20th

quickest, easiest way to attach balloons to a mattress. Texted Cheryl and she said safety pins.

April 17th

Balloons still there

February 27th

paint on it

March 11th

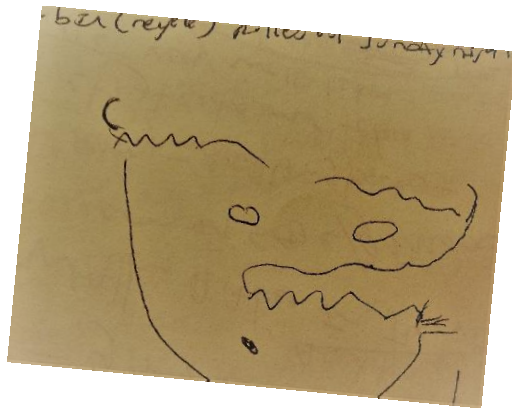

guest speaker in class said a homeless person wouldn't look at mattress like art. Would see it as a strange thing to do.

I don't think so.

February 14th

March 2nd

My teacher doesn't like my mattress.

April 14th

We should put a sheet on it.

April 15th

A fitted sheet.

March 19th

If he's following me irl then he might be reading my work

March 29th

April 22nd

Hello.

February 19th

I hope it's still there today.

I hope it's still there today

April 21st

I've learned how to be non-plussed. I mean, really, deep down in my soul nonplussed. It's great. Thanks.

April 22nd

I'm still going to eat your face off if I see you tho

February 2nd

What else can I do with it?
